Take a walk through St. Petersburg history and enjoy artwork on for sale this weekend in Roser Park.

The Historic Roser Park Art Festival returns Saturday and Sunday with painters, photographers, sculptors and craftspeople displaying their works on the banks of Booker Creek in historic Roser Park.

The event also features an outdoor Roser Park museum, a self-guided walking tour through early St. Pete history, food and live music from the Al Downing Tampa Bay Jazz Association and the Shiny Shoe Band. Admission is free.

Part of the proceeds will go toward the preservation and improvement of the Historic Roser Park neighborhood and ASAP Homeless Services of St. Petersburg. Hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday at Roser Park, 10th Avenue S between Fourth and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Street. Information: 822-7582 or visit www.roserpark.net.
